Objective : give an alternative outlet for artistic expression than globalization

Third Eye Local Knowledge and Skill Group is an activist group that works to find an alternative to globalization, which suppresses the differences in a multi cultural world. They conduct workshops, seminars, informal discussion groups in universities, schools, villages and other social events as well as publish a newsletter called « Moondravathu Kann ».

The blog serves primarily to give detail about exhibitions, theater and other art activities in Sri Lanka that address conflict and womens rights.

from an art exhibition in January 2007.
